2018 World Wing Chun Open Competition

REGULATIONS: Group B

The 2018 World Wing Chun Open Competition (WWCC) is the inaugural international event for the discipline of Wing Chun that is hosted by the International Wushu Federation. This event will provide a platform for practitioners of Wing Chun of all ages and skill levels to compete solely within the style's various practices on an unprecedented scale.

Official regulations have been set for two groups of participants (Group A and Group B) due to different rules among countries and Wing Chun schools worldwide. WWCC participants can choose to register in one (1) of either Group A or Group B according to their own situation. These are the official regulations for Group B, which will be based on Domestic (China) rules for domestic athletes.

The Chinese Wushu Association is responsible for the organization of the 2018 World Wing Chun Open Competition under the auspices of the IWUF (Co-organizers : Guangdong Wushu Association and Foshan High-tech Zone Management Committee; Assisting-organizers: Shishan Government, Wing Chun Association, Nanhai High-tech Zone Wing Chun Association, Nanhai High-tech Zone Youth Chamber of Commerce, Shishan Tourism Association).
