2018 World Wing Chun Open Competition

REGULATIONS: Group A

The 2018 World Wing Chun Open Competition (WWCC) is the inaugural international event for the discipline of Wing Chun that is hosted by the International Wushu Federation. This event will provide a platform for practitioners of Wing Chun of all ages and skill levels to compete solely within the style's various practices on an unprecedented scale.

Official regulations have been set for two groups of participants (Group A and Group B) due to different rules among countries and Wing Chun schools worldwide. WWCC participants can choose to register in one (1) of either Group A or Group B according to their own situation. These are the official regulations for Group A, which will be based on international rules: for international athletes.

The Chinese Wushu Association is responsible for the organization of the 2018 World Wing Chun Open Competition under the auspices of the IWUF.

1) Referee will, according to the total performance of the competitor, judge the overall grade of the competitor as specified in 3.1 above. Based on the total score the referee will further deduct "deduction due to other error as specified in the schedule of the rules". The referee may make deduction up to 2 decimal point ranging from 0.01 to 0.09.

2) Confirmation of score

(1) When there are 3 judges, the average score will be the final score of the athlete.

(2) When there are 4 or 5 judges, the highest and the lowest mark will not be taken into calculation. Thence, the average score of the other 3 judges will be the final score of the competitor. All scores will be counted up to 2 decimal points.

3) Head Referee's Adjustment

While it appears that there is obvious unreasonable situation in calculating the score, the Head Referee has the authority to make adjustment on the score either by increment or reduction within the range from 0.01 to 0.05.

4) Final Score

The ultimate score after the Head Referee's adjustment is the final score of the competitor.

26.3 Criteria for Awarding Score

1) Grades and sub-grades:

Three grades and nine sub-grades will be given according to the following scores: (Excellence: 8.5-10marks) (Good: 7-8.49 marks) (Average: 5-6.99 marks) (See table1)

The total score from (3) to (5) will be 30%.
 - (6) Competitors should finish the performance within the time limit.
- 2) Score Deduction for Other Error (see table 2) (after giving overall score, deduction will be further made according to error)
- 3) Head Referee will monitor the referee’s execution.
- (1) Over or Under the Time Limit
 1. Under the minimum time requirement for less than 2 seconds, 0.1 points will be deducted from the total score.
 2. Under the minimum time requirement for more than 2 seconds but within 4 seconds, 0.2 point will be deducted from the total score

3. Under minimum time requirement for more than 4 seconds, 0.3 point will be deducted from the total score. The maximum deduction is 0.3 point.
 4. Exceed the maximum time limit for not over 5 seconds, 0.1 point will be deducted from the total score.
 5. Exceed the maximum time limit for more than 5 seconds; 0.2 points will be deducted from the total score.
 6. Exceed the maximum time limit for more than 10 seconds; 0.3 points will be deducted from the total score.
 7. The Head Referee will ask the competitor to stop performance if 0.3 point has already been deducted.
- 2) 0.1 point will be deducted for any single error
- 3) If the competitor is unable to complete the set form for a subjective reason, the competitor may restart on the approval of the Head Referee. However, 0.1 point will be deducted from the total score.
- If the competitor is unable to complete the set form for an objective reason, the competitor may do his performance again and no deduction will be made. This competitor may re-do his performance at the end of the contest.
- 4) If the number of participants of group competition does not achieve the requirement of the competition, 0.5 points will be deducted for every person short of the requirement.
- 5) If the athlete does not give a salute before starting and after finishing, 0.1 will be deducted.

Article 27 Competition Criteria

27.1 Criteria

The full marks of the performance are ten marks. Participants will be given scores according to the “Criteria and general requirement of To-Lo performance”, along with the comparison of participants’ other performance in competition. Referee can give marks to the second decimal place.

27.2 Grading standard

Three grades and nine sub-grades will be given according to the following scores: (Excellence: 8.5-10marks) (Good: 7-8.49 marks) (Average: 5-6.99 marks) (See table1) (This grading is just for information with no material effect on score)

General Requirement of To-Lo Performance:

- (1) The main gist of Wing Chun is overcoming hardness by flexibility with the integration of other branches of martial arts.
- (2) Different styles of martial arts can be utilized with the uniqueness of Wing Chun.
- (3) Organization, content, skills, interaction and theme of Wing Chun will be counted as criteria of performance.
- (4) If background music is used, the music should be closely related to the theme and performance.

Article 28 Show of the Final Score

- 28.1 Referee will show the score awarded to the competitor publicly and the Head Referee will show the final score.
- 28.2 Alternatively, the referee may submit their assessment to the Head Referee and the Head Referee will show the final score.

Article 29 Others

The Competition Committee may from time to time adjust or amend the rules depending on the needs of the actual situation.
