1. INTRODUCTION

Brief History of World Junior Wushu Championship & Significance of 9th Edition

The 9th World Junior Wushu Championships (9thWJWC) is the official world championship event which is hosted by the International Wushu Federation. The World Junior Wushu Championships (WJWC) takes place biennially and is the official pinnacle junior championships of the IWUF and features its highest competitive level amongst its junior athletes. The Wushu Federation of Brunei is responsible for the organization of the 9th WJWC under the auspices of the IWUF.

The WJWC was established to provide a global platform for young athletes to showcase their talents and foster international camaraderie. Since its inception, the championship has grown in prestige and scale, drawing participants from around the world.

The inaugural event was held in 2006 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, and has since become a cornerstone for junior sports, highlighting future stars and setting new records. The championship is held every 2 years, targeting the Taolu and Sanda categories.

Over the years, the championship has been hosted by various countries and regions, each bringing its unique flavor and hospitality. As we celebrate the 9th edition in Brunei, we continue the tradition of excellence, sportsmanship, and international friendship that defines the WJWC. Hosting this prestigious event underscores Brunei's commitment to promoting youth sports and fostering international unity. This edition not only highlights the exceptional talents of young athletes from over 50 countries and regions but also showcases Brunei's cultural heritage and natural beauty. The 9th edition is a testament to the enduring legacy and bright future of the WJWC, celebrating the spirit of competition, sportsmanship, and mutual respect.

Goals & Objective of the Championships:

The primary goal of the World Junior Wushu Championships is to provide a platform for young athletes to showcase their talents and compete at an international level. Through this championship, we aim to:

- Foster global unity and friendship among participants from diverse backgrounds.
- Promote the values of sportsmanship, fair play, and respect.
- Inspire and empower the next generation of athletes to reach their full potential.
- Encourage participation in sports and promote a healthy and active lifestyle among youth worldwide.
- Create lasting memories and experiences that will shape the future of junior sports.

5. GUIDELINES FOR MEDIA REGISTRATION

Media Registration Deadline: 24:00 August 31, 2024 (Beijing Time)

All media representatives should submit their registration online through the IWUF Online Accreditation System at the <https://9thwjwc-media.jyywty.com/web/index.html>

The 9th WWC Organizing Committee will send a notice of media accreditation to applicants' email addresses if approved.

Step 1:

Visit the following website link to access the online registration form.
<https://9thwjwc-media.jyywty.com/web/index.html>

Note: We highly suggest using the PC or laptop to complete the media registration in English language.

The screenshot displays the login interface for the 9th World Junior Wushu Championships media registration system. The page has a blue gradient background. At the top, the title "9TH WORLD JUNIOR WUSHU CHAMPIONSHIPS" is centered in white. Below it, a yellow banner indicates the "Registration Deadline: 2024-08-31 24:00". The main content area is a white box containing the login form. At the top of this box is the IWUF logo. The form includes three input fields: "Username:", "Password:", and "Captcha:". Below the "Captcha:" field are two links: "Register" and "Forgot Password". A large blue "Login" button is positioned below the input fields. At the bottom of the white box, there are three links: "9th WJWC Media Registration Guideline", "Visa Application Form for Media", and "Application For A Temporary Stay in Brunei Darussalam".

MUST VISIT SPOTS CLOSE TO EVENT VUNUE & ACCOMODATION

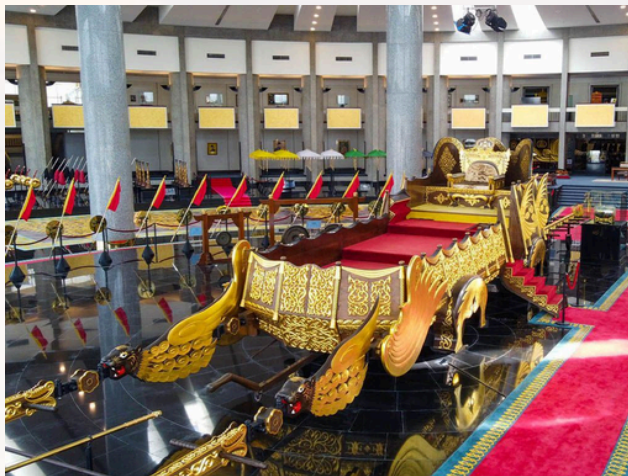

Omar 'Ali Saifuddien Mosque

From its iconic glistening golden dome and towering marble walls to the majestic and magical lagoon housing the historical Mahligai Barge, its no wonder the Omar 'Ali Saifuddien Mosque is seen as one of the most magnificent mosques in the Asia Pacific. Named after the 28th Sultan, who is known as The Architect of Modern Brunei, you'll quickly be immersed in its glorious beauty and wealth of history and culture.

Kampong Ayer

Kampong Ayer is one of the largest water settlements in Southeast Asia, this expanse of settlements on stilts is a must-visit for any traveler wishing to complete their tour of Brunei. The Brunei River is home to a lively community. Start off with a scenic boat ride of the Brunei River before taking a walk along wooden paths and bridges rich with culture and history. Complete your experience by paying a visit to the Cultural and Tourism Gallery and learn why Kampong Ayer is known as the "Venice of The East".

The Royal Regalia Museum

The Royal Regalia Museum is home to the Sultanate's heirlooms and regalia. From golden chariots to olden-day symbolic weapons and shields, exhibits of His Majesty's Silver and Golden Jubilee celebrations, and ornate mementos from historic Brunei, this museum is embellished with the beauty of Brunei's past.

Tamu Kianggeh

Located at the banks of Kianggeh river where the waterways are constantly busy with motorboats zooming by, the market features a variety of local vegetables like edible ferns and medicinal herbs. Also on sale are fishermen's catch of the day as well as ready-cooked local dishes that'll whet your appetite for that distinct Bruneian flavor! The market is open daily from 8am-5.30pm, with Friday morning being their most bustling time! However most stalls would pack up by noon so we suggest you head there in the morning.
